

University of
HUDDERSFIELD
Inspiring tomorrow's professionals

Victorian Voices of Huddersfield

Thursday 18 October

Council Chamber
Huddersfield Town Hall
Corporation St
HD1 2ET

10:30am-12 noon

Part of Kirklees
Local Democracy Week
2018

This event will provide a showcase of research undertaken by undergraduate History students on the University of Huddersfield's 'Digital Victorians' module.

The wider theme of exploring Victorian democracy using digital technologies will be discussed in a short talk by module leader Dr Tosh Warwick followed by a series of presentations by students delving into a number of topics relating to local democracy at the heart of Huddersfield's democracy through time.

There will also be an opportunity for participants to view some documents from historic collections and digital resources relating to the themes explored as part of Local Democracy Week 2018.

For more information on Local Democracy Week 2018 and how you can get involved, visit www.democracycommission.org.uk

 @HistoryatHud

 /mhmhudds

 @mhmhudds